Online/remote instruction is as engaging as inperson/on-campus instruction.

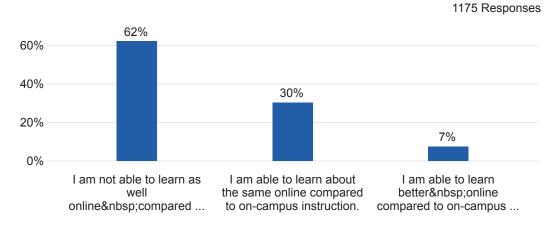

I am satisfied with the level of interaction with my instructor since the transition to online/remote instruction.

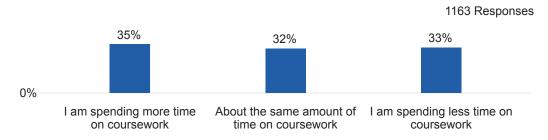

I feel supported by my teachers and school administrators.

Returning to on-campus instruction in the fall

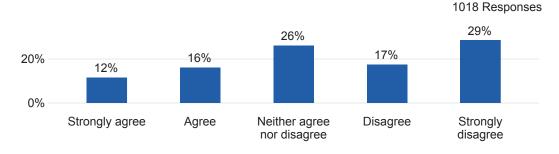

Have you dropped or considering dropping one or more of your classes this semester?

I feel like I can still graduate on time.

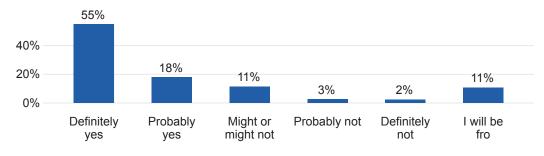

Based on my experience this semester, I am more likely to consider remote or online education in the future.

Do you intend to return to Allan Hancock College next fall to continue and/or complete your education?

Given the situation with the COVID-19 pandemic, if Allan Hancock College were to operate remotely in Fall 2020, would that affect your decision to attend AHC?
