CHIEF'S PREFACE

At Allan Hancock College, student success is our highest priority. As such, the Allan Hancock College Police Department is dedicated to providing a safe environment where students, staff, and faculty can continue to learn and excel in their personal and professional pursuits.

It is the policy of the Allan Hancock College Police Department to provide the best, most responsive, and professional public safety services to students, staff, faculty, and visitors to our campus. Every officer and staff member of the Allan Hancock College Police Department will continually strive for excellence in all our tasks, assignments and calls for service.

All officers and staff members of the Allan Hancock College Police Department will treat everyone fairly and with dignity and will be responsive to the needs of our community. We will remain consistent, fair, and creative in dealing with our college community problems. We dedicate ourselves to remaining sensitive and supportive of the cultural and ethnic diversities that are present on and off our campus.

Members of our department maintain the highest level of ethics, morals, values, and commitment. These beliefs carry over into our day-to-day service to our campus community. We are proud of our training, experience, and accomplishments in our professions.

We are proud to be members of and to serve the Allan Hancock Community College.
