

Allan Hancock Community College Police Department

Policy Manual

MISSION STATEMENT

It is the mission of the Allan Hancock College police department to serve the campus community, safeguard lives and property, and maintain an environment in which learning can take place. To fulfill this mission, the police department provides a variety of public safety services for students, faculty, and the community.

The police department is staffed by state-certified police officers and dispatch/records staff, office assistants, and security officers. Police officers patrol the campus in marked and unmarked police vehicles enforcing laws of the State of California and all ordinances of Allan Hancock College.

Police and public safety services include crime prevention, lost, and found property control, emergency/disaster management, crime and accident investigation, parking control, and security escort services.
