Writing Center

The Writing Center will be closed February 18th, 19th, & 21st for President's Day weekend.

The Writing Center supports writers enrolled in any AHC course. While in remote teaching mode, the Writing Center offers virtual Zoom tutoring with a faculty tutor on a drop-in basis. Students are encouraged to access drop-in tutoring as needed. However, if you require extended time with a tutor, 50-minute appointments are available.

To use the Writing Center in fall semester, enroll in the free Writing Center course on myHancock: BASK 7015, CRN 40961, Reading and Writing Lab. BASK 7015 is a free noncredit course with no minimum attendance requirement, no unit value, and no grades. After you register, you can connect with a faculty tutor using the buttons below. View instructor schedule. Questions? Use the chat box and a staff member will assist you.
