BP 7260 Classified Administrators

Classified administrators are administrators who are not employed as educational administrators.

Classified administrators are those administrators, regardless of job description, having authority to hire, transfer, suspend, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees, or having the responsibility to assign work to and direct them, adjust their grievances, or effectively recommend such action.

Classified administrators are those administrators, regardless of job description, having significant responsibilities for formulating District policies or administering District programs other than the educational programs of the District.

Classified administrators may be employed by an appointment or contract of up to four years in duration. If a classified administrator is employed by an appointment or contract, the appointment or contract shall be subject to the same conditions as applicable to educational administrators.

AP 7260 CLASSIFIED ADMINISTRATORS

Hiring Procedures

The following procedures will be followed in creating and filling administrative positions:

1. When the establishment of a new administrative position is under consideration, the Academic Senate Executive Committee and College Council shall be invited to consult and make recommendations prior to the time such position is presented to the Board of Trustees for formal action.
2. When there is to be any major change or reassignment in any existing administrative position directly affecting the relationship of that administrative position to the certificated staff, College Council shall be invited to consult and make recommendations.
3. In all hiring procedures involving administrative personnel, Administrative Procedure 3420 titled Equal Employment Opportunity section IV, Employment Procedures, will be followed.

It is recognized that emergencies may make it impossible to adhere to all aspects of the above procedures. In these instances, the administration will work with the Academic Senate Executive Committee and College Council and make every effort to follow the procedures as closely as possible. The provisions of the Education Code and all other applicable laws shall prevail if found to be in conflict with these procedures.
