Good afternoon,

Human Resources is pleased to offer this important professional development opportunity to all faculty, staff and administrators.

Hancock College has partnered with JUST Communities to offer a series of webinars on implicit bias and diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI). We strongly encourage participation in all four sessions.

All sessions will be held via Zoom from 10:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. on the dates below.

September 18, 2020 – Introduction to diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI).

October 2, 2020 – Introduction to implicit bias.

October 16, 2020 – Impact of implicit bias on campus.

October 30, 2020 – Evidence based strategies to address implicit bias and DEI issues on campus.

IMPLICIT BIAS & DEI WEBINARS

Just Communities presents a series of webinars aligned with the goals of Allan Hancock College to provide staff and faculty with the knowledge, tools, and skills they need to lead for diversity, inclusion, and equity, both internally and externally.

9/18/20 Session 1 - Introduction to diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI). Building a common language and building a case for addressing DEI on campus.

10/2/20 Session 2 - Implicit bias introduction: What is it? Where does it come from? What's the brain science behind it?

10/16/20 Session 3 - What are the impacts of implicit bias in general and what are the impacts specifically in a university/college setting?

10/30/20 Session 4 - What can we do about it? What are the evidence based strategies to help us address implicit bias and reduce the likelihood that it will cause harm on campus?

All sessions are from 10:00am-12:15pm
RSVP by September 7th at 5:00pm
