

Career
Essentials:
*Foundations

Leading and Following is a Two-way Street

Workplace Skills: Teamwork

- Essential Questions
 - What makes a leader effective?
 - How does a leading follower positively affect a team's performance? A leader's performance?
 - How can all members of a team determine their role on a team?

Leading and Following is a Two-way Street

Workplace Skills: Teamwork

- Students will understand...
 - Leaders know when and how to lead and follow.
 - Both leaders and leading followers are needed on teams to make the team function well.
 - All people on a team have specific roles to play.

Leading and Following is a Two-way Street

Workplace Skills: Teamwork

- Students will know...
 - The best leaders know when to lead and when to be a leading follower.
 - Leaders equip others to lead.

Leading and Following is a Two-way Street

Workplace Skills: Teamwork

- Students will be able to...
 - Identify how an individual can fill the role of “leader” and “leading follower.”
 - Identify specific roles played on a team.
 - Identify how to be a leader and a leading follower within specific teams.

Are you a leader
or a follower?

Why? How?

Objectives:

- Identify how an individual can fill the role of “leader” and “leading follower.”
- Identify specific roles played on a team.
- Identify how to be a leader and a leading follower within specific teams.

Leaders

- Prepare others to lead
- Take initiative
- Serve others
- Guide others in solving problems
- Cause others to take action
- Delegate tasks

Leading Followers

- Are relied upon by their leader
- Encourage their leader
- Volunteer to collaborate with others
- Are often delegated tasks

Workplace Skills: Teamwork

Penzu

www.penzu.com

Workplace Skills: Teamwork

- What teams are you currently part of?
- What roles do you play on those teams?

Examples of teams include: family, officer team, athletic teams, academic teams, clubs, organizations, bands, work teams and more.

- Write down all the teams you brainstormed.
- Why did you chose those teams?
- Create a Prezi about the ways you lead and follow within the teams you currently participate.

