

EN 101 Final Exam

In this final in-class essay, please analyze a particular set of pages from one or both of the graphic novels that we have read, Fun Home by Alison Bechdel, or Gender Queer by Maia Kobabe. In analyzing your chosen pages, explain how the authors defy single stories (the overarching theme of the course) through their illustrations and depictions of experiences and emotions of their main characters.

You should consider how the pages you've chosen defy single stories about gender, sexuality, masculinity, femininity, and/or family.

The essay should have an introduction with a thesis, body paragraphs, and a conclusion.

In the essay you should go into detail about the pages you've chosen. Include specific quotes with correct MLA in-text citation, paraphrased material, and your own detailed analysis of the illustrations, frames, and their context.

Finally, explain why this text was meaningful to you, what you've learned, and how you will apply this information in the future.
