What are the Coming Out Monologues?

National Coming Out Day is an annual event celebrated on October 11, which marks the anniversary of the 1987 March on Washington for Gay and Lesbian Rights. To commemorate this event, Allan Hancock College will host its first-ever production of The Coming Out Monologue. This production aims to present the many aspects of the coming out process as experienced by various members of the LGBTQ community. We wish to include coming out stories from numerous backgrounds and perspectives, including advocates, allies, parents, friends, and persons who identify within the LGBTQ spectrum of identities.

Who Should Submit?

- Anyone who identifies along the spectrum of LGBTQ identities.
- Parents and family members of LGBTQ identified individuals.
- Advocates and Allies of the LGBTQ community.
- Anyone who has had someone come out to them.
- Those who have not yet come out as LGBTQ.

Submit your monologue online by Monday, September 13, 2021.
The event will be virtual and live-streamed on Saturday, October 9, 2021, at 5 pm.
NOTE: You can remain anonymous and have your monologue read by speech students.
Check out www.hancockcollege.edu/lgbtq for more submission guidelines.

Need help developing your monologue?
Check out www.hancockcollege.edu/lgbtq for more details on workshops being offered to help you tell your story.

For questions and more information, please contact Antonio Ramirez, AHC counselor, at Antonio.ramirez12@hancockcollege.edu.